University As Community

- Student life across Columbia’s schools
  - Inclusion and diversity
  - Mental health and wellness
  - Sexual respect and gender-based misconduct
  - First-generation and low-income student life issues

- Intellectual life at the University level
  - Awakening Our Democracy
  - Film series

- Community citizenship
Office of University Life: Defining Features

- Engagement with students, faculty and staff across University
- Collaboration across schools, centers and institutes
- Integration of global perspectives
- Focus on policy, politics, contemporary events, arts and culture
Intellectual Life and Community Citizenship

- Film screenings and discussions
- Ideas and action/University Life website
- Centers and institutes
What is the link between Sexual Respect and

...access to education?
...personal expression and personal safety?
...student life?
...the Columbia community?
...you?

October 20, 2015 to March 20, 2016
GET STARTED
sexualrespect.columbia.edu

The Sexual Respect and Community Citizenship Initiative

FEATURING
Workshops
Film Screenings
Online Options
Independent Projects
Resources for Healing and Resilience

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
Office of University Life
University Life Task Forces

- Gender-Based Misconduct Prevention Task Force
- Race, Ethnicity and Inclusion Task Force
OUR TEAM:

Suzanne Goldberg, Executive Vice President
Barbara Chen, Director of Communications
Don Harrison, Executive Assistant
Lamar Lovelace, Director of Public Programs and Events
Jonathan Morales, Administrative Coordinator
TJ O’Neill, Digital Communications Manager
Radhika Patel, Chief of Staff
Ixchel Rosal, Associate Vice President for Student Life Learn more at:

http://universitylife.columbia.edu